ONE VISION OF QUEEN FEAT. MARC MARTEL

One of the most spectacular Queen Tribute Shows
Tour 2027

The vocal reincarnation of legendary Queen singer Freddie Mercury has a name: MARC MARTEL. Not only does he rejoice in one of the most extraordinary voices of our time – he also has the gift of conjuring what seemed lost forever: the magic of a Queen concert. “One Vision of Queen” pays deep homage to the career and creativity of Freddie Mercury – and has been thrilling a vast global fan community with it for almost 15 years. This lauded live show has long become established as a firm fixture in the international tribute scene. The hit production will be embarking on another major European tour in 2027 – stopping off in a number of selected cities where Marc Martel and his amazing band have regularly sold out venues and won standing ovations over the years.

What makes this show so special, on top of the qualities of Martel as a singer and entertainer, is the experience itself. Within seconds of the first chords sounding, an energy surges through the entire hall. This isn't overdone bombast, or pretence, even imitation – it's honest, crafted rock music, played by a first-rate band radiating passion you can feel. The clear, forceful sound and driving rhythm fill the space with an electric atmosphere. A few minutes is all it takes to get the audience up out of their seats, jointly celebrating the songs of one of the greatest rock bands of all time. And in those quiet moments – when Martel sits at the piano and performs ballads like “Love of My Life” or “Who Wants to Live Forever?” – the place falls silent and the magic of the evening can be sensed in every corner of the hall. “One Vision of Queen feat. Marc Martel” is no nostalgia concert: it's an intense, rousing and deeply moving musical experience.

The Canadian-born singer and entertainer, who now lives in Nashville, has been touring Europe and North America with “One Vision of Queen” since 2020 with great success. He is undoubtedly one of the best and most sought-after interpreters of the great rock legend, touching the emotions of audiences from first minute to last with great Queen classics like “Bohemian Rhapsody”, “Somebody to Love” and anthems like “We Are the Champions”. At every performance, Martel and his band bear impressive witness to their musical expertise and precision, coupled with heart and passion. The result: a thrilling live experience that brings the generations together.

So it's no accident that we revel in “One Vision of Queen” again and again, every year. It's an expression of just how timeless and affecting music can be. And it's no surprise that the phenomenon that is Marc Martel fascinates off stage too: he lent his voice to the song sections in the quadruple-Oscar-winning biopic “Bohemian Rhapsody” about Freddie Mercury, and he is a popular talk show guest on top national and international TV shows like Ellen DeGeneres, American Idol or the Giovanni Zarella Show. Over 1.4 million people follow his YouTube channel and his videos have over 250 million views.

Supremely important though it is for Marc Martel to capture the spirit of Freddie Mercury with the greatest possible artistic authenticity, he always emphasises how vital it is for him to be himself, as a person and an artist. He had, after all, been a professional stage musician with his own band for many years before Queen drummer Roger Taylor discovered him in 2011. “I think my voice is enough to remind people of Freddie. I love to be myself – especially on the stage”, explains Marc Martel, master of the fine art of balancing homage with individuality.

“Martel is astonishing: the intonation is almost flawless, the vocal range insane, the timbre makes you melt”
